The BARC Ice Prix will take place on January 27 and 28. The track is looking good and is ready for the first event.

There will be pre-tech for the cars on the January 13th weekend. The weekend after will be the start of the season, with the BARC Ice Prix running on the second weekend of the schedule.

Wayne is short of a couple of volunteers, if anyone is interested in helping they should contact him.

He also has BARC toques for $20 each.

NEW BUSINESS

Andrew Jordan is involved with assisting Matthew Hayley set the Guinness Book of World

Records, Greatest Distance for Indoor Karting in 24 hours. This event will take place at Formula Kartways on January 22 and 23. Formula Kartways' Driving Instructor Shawn de Jager and owner David Tennyson are putting their support behind the event, with Shawn helping to prepare the driver. They will try to complete 44,000 laps with the monies raised going to the Princess Margaret Foundation. They would like to beat the current record of 733.6 kilometres in 24 hours by completing at least 800 km, and if possible completing 820 km.

Keith Whorley asked about encouraging more people to attend meetings. David King suggested asking on the membership form if members can be contacted.

Bryan Rashleigh asked if Scott Ellsworth could send a survey by e-mail asking members why they do not attend meetings. It was suggested Department Heads could ask their staff.

Phil Bigliotti has volunteered to contact members.

David King announced that the VARAC Vintage Festival on June 14 to 17 at CTMP will celebrate the Formula 5000 series and cars.
