MINUTES

Kyle Bast, President

Mary Lobban made a motion for the minutes to be accepted as posted on the website which was seconded by Howard Cohen

DEPARTMENTS

MEMBERSHIP

Andrea Pegg, Membership Secretary

There were 134 renewals and one new member.

Online registration is not available as the websight is down.

TREASURY

Paul Clarke, Treasurer

We are in good shape.

Following the suggestion at the last meeting by Mary Lobban to purchase GICs, Paul would like to wait until after the July race to review our financials before doing so.

WRRC

Howard Cohen, co-chair WRRC

There were members from various clubs volunteering at the CASC booth at the Motorama show.

Matt Garwood's racecar was a very popular attraction as people were allowed to sit in it.

There was great interest by the attendees and some may come out to the track.

A few people were interested in joining the club.

SOCIAL

Howard Cohen

Howard contacted Multimatic Motorsports about organizing a visit by club members, but Ford will not allow it during the race season. He will check with them again at end of season.

REGIONAL RACE/ORO

Scott Ellsworth, Race Director

Anyone can race on licences allowed by CASC. However they must join CASC if they would like to run in the Championship.

Registration is open for all events a week before the races.

Registration is already available for the BEMC event.

All workers can register for the events through MotorsportReg, which should reduce the process at the track.

Phil Delahaye asked for the instructions to register. Scott will post a link on the BARC website.

BARC is considering helping to run the Formula Libre and GT classes at the Time Attack event at CTMP on June 24th and 25th.

Scott and Bryan will be reviewing what trophies are needed.

There is a Clerks and Stewards' meeting on Sunday April 23rd at the CASC office.

RACE COMMITTEE

David King, BARC/Region Chief Scrutineer

David King was not present.

HONDA INDY TORONTO

Scott Ellsworth

There is not much new to report.

Honda will be providing Ridgeline trucks as support vehicles.

ICE RACING

Wayne Wanamaker, Ice Race Director

The Ice Race banquet will take place on April 29th. Tickets are available from Jonathon Rashleigh. Tickets can be reserved online and picked up at the door.

Old Business

There was no old business.

NEW BUSINESS

There was a Toyo 1600 meeting on Sunday, April 2nd.

There will be some new cars this year.

Sponsors Toyo Tires and Honda will be providing prizes, Toyo with tyres and Honda with prize money for both the "A" and "B" classes.

There will be a "Super Series" with the Quebec and Ontario divers.

There will also be other prizes for example for the team who best promotes the series.

All FF1600 entries for the Montreal Gp have been filled.

They expect good numbers of cars this year.

Bill Lobban said he hopes BARC is still maintaining a connection with the series.

Phil Delahaye went to the Sebring 12-hour race. There were a good number of spectators and it was a great race with many manufacturers taking part. All classes had great competitions.

Buy/Sell

Bryan Rashleigh has two ice racers for sale, and he also has many spares including transmissions. One car is licensed for the road.

Bob Page has many household items for sale including furniture, dishes and appliances.

Adjournment

Wayne Wannamaker made a motion to adjourn the meeting which was seconded by Bob Page at 8:50pm

NEXT MONTH'S MEETING: at the Lone Star Texas Grill (upstairs) – May 2, 2017 at 8pm.
